Christmas Shoe Box Appeal. A wonderful response again from Abbey and Dirleton churches, and friends, to the Shoe Box Appeal. 130 boxes were collected by Blythswood on Wednesday with a further £60 in monetary donations out with the boxes. A very big thank you to all who contributed and helped in many ways.

At Regal in Abbey Large hall on 8th November, David McAdam will speak on 'Phillimore's Legacy to North Berwick'. David will describe Phillimore's interest in postcards and his association with North Berwick. The talk will start at 12noon and will be followed by a soup and sandwich lunch prepared by ladies of the congregation.

A reminder that the Dirleton Kirk Flower Team will be holding it's annual planning meeting at Orchard cottage, Dirleton on Tuesday 13th November at 10.30am. Anybody who would like to take part in this most enjoyable task is welcome to come along to join us for coffee, or just phone Sarah Stephen.

Dirleton Kirk husband and father, Nat Spring, is cycling across Scotland to raise money for 'Headway', the Brain Injury Association. His 150-mile solo trip from North Berwick to Annan (via Berwick-upon-Tweed) should take three days, cycling about 50 miles per day. This is part of his own journey to full recovery from a head injury, sustained 16 months ago while taking his primary school class to visit Dirleton Castle. More information, including how to donate, can be found at justgiving.com or c/o Dirleton Kirk.
